NGCSU BOY'S BASKETBALL CAMP

The North Georgia College & State University Men's Basketball Program proudly invites you to learn the fundamentals of the game "Saints Style." Join head coach Chris Faulkner as you sharpen your skills, increase your understanding of the game of basketball, and work with others within your age group. The experienced staff will provide instruction to help you become a better basketball player. Campers receive small group instruction and play on organized teams, learning to incorporate individual skill into team play. We promise our campers fun, friends, safety and plenty of basketball!

COACH CHRIS FAULKNER

Chris Faulkner enters his seventh year as head men's basketball coach at North Georgia. During his first six seasons at the helm, the Saints basketball program has accumulated a record of 92-86, and he led the 2008-09 team to the quarterfinals of the Peach Belt Conference basketball tournament, with a record of 15-12, and a fourth place regular season finish. Coach Faulkner first became involved with North Georgia as a player in 1989. Since then, he has continued to work with the university's basketball program for the past 15 years as a player, assistant, and head coach. Faulkner is a 1993 graduate of North Georgia College where he received a B.S. in physical education and a M.Ed. in education in 1995. Faulkner played four years of collegiate basketball at North Georgia (1989-1993) and in the 1992-1993 season, he served as team captain. He also participated in international summer play in Costa Rica, Spain, and was a recipient of the Will D. Young Scholarship. After finishing his playing career at North Georgia, he assumed the role of assistant coach in 1993. Faulkner spent four seasons as the assistant under former head coach and now athletic director Randy Dunn. In 1997, he was named head basketball coach at Piedmont College in Demorest, Georgia. In May 2003, Faulkner returned to his alma mater as head men's basketball coach.
