

Class Times (3 semester hour course)

Deviation from these class times requires the approval of Academic Affairs.

The suggested times are based on a 55 minute class period for three-day a week classes and an 85 minute class period for two-day a week classes. These class times are based on the three-semester hour course. One-, two-, and four-semester hour courses would be scheduled so that start times would match the start time of one of the periods provided below. In general, the time between class periods is 10 minutes.

Notes:

* Potential conflict between classes meeting multiple times during a week and classes meeting one time. The choice of one-day a week classes vs. classes that meet more than once a week in the afternoon and evening would probably be set up so that lower-level courses meet more than once a week. For upper-level courses (usually within a student's major), each department would determine the format that best fits the course material and the student body.

**One-day a week classes meet 170 minutes with a break of approximately 10 minutes during the scheduled class time.
